One of our patrolmen wrecked the blue cruiser.

Patrolman Jared Riley stopped one of the firefighters while he was going to an emergency run this past month. Jared said he ran a stop sign and swerved, running without lights or sirens. When our officer got to the firehouse behind the firefighter, there was an issue, because the firefighter was determined to go on the run. The fire chief came out, and words were exchanged. Jared called the Chief and the Sheriff's Department. The Mayor told the Police Department that if anyone interferes with a citation again, to arrest them.

Skip will paint crosswalks if he gets a good day.
